It is the only agency that provides the computer as the primary program. To the best of our knowledge, no other agency provides the computer as the primary program for the state. The only other agency that provides the computer as the primary program is the state of New York.

If the 100% rule applies, there generally has been no change. The only factors will remain are: (1) what is exempt? (2) how is reported to the principal for the purposes described in 1.01-1.1?
